FINANCIAL.

A dull week's business was rounded off yesterday with a little more "of the same sort." The city council having authorized holders of city bonds to sell at a discount, a movement that appears likely to be successful. The exchange rate yesterday remained at par buying and 1/4 premium selling on New York on other conditions, the rate on London, 100 shillings, 24s. 6d. 1/2. The market for gold was quiet, and silver at 1/16 premium selling for both demand and sight; on New Orleans, 1/4 discount buying, selling at par. The Louisville Journal says: "A fortnight ago congress passed an act authorizing the release of redeemed greenbacks as legal tenders. No means were established by which the notes could be released, and the time and manner of the execution of the act were left to the discretion of the treasury with the largest discretion. An unofficial secretary can easily defeat the intent of the law, and a committee secretary could have done so. The present state of affairs is, it is compelled to pay the expense of the government out of special funds appropriated, which are furnished by the general tax income. He can pay the greenbacks in gold, or in silver, or in paying interest." Silver in London fell to 1/16 per ounce on Wednesday, and in New York the auction value of a new silver dollar was only about 89 1/2 cts.
